

Can I file a late answer?

You can file a late answer. However, if the Plaintiff has asked for a default judgment, it is likely that your answer will not have an effect on the outcome.

The source of this information may be internal or external to the Beaverhead County Justice Court. The Beaverhead County Justice Court makes all reasonable efforts to verify this information. However, the information provided in this document is for your information only. The Beaverhead County Justice Court makes no explicit or implied claims to the validity of this information.