

Can I subpoena records and documents?

Yes, there is a different subpoena for documents or things known as a "subpoena duces tecum." It should be served on the custodian of the document being subpoenaed. Just let the Clerk of Court know the type of subpoena you want.

The source of this information may be internal or external to the Beaverhead County Justice Court. The Beaverhead County Justice Court makes all reasonable efforts to verify this information. However, the information provided in this document is for your information only. The Beaverhead County Justice Court makes no explicit or implied claims to the validity of this information.