

What if I file a case in the wrong court?

The case will be dismissed without prejudice to allow you to file the case in the proper court. You will lose the cost of filing and will have to pay the cost of filing in the proper court.

The source of this information may be internal or external to the Beaverhead County Justice Court. The Beaverhead County Justice Court makes all reasonable efforts to verify this information. However, the information provided in this document is for your information only. The Beaverhead County Justice Court makes no explicit or implied claims to the validity of this information.