

What is a subpoena?

A Subpoena is a document issued by the clerk of court under seal. It states the name of the court, the title of the lawsuit, and compels the attendance of the person receiving the subpoena to give testimony, or produce documents, or both, at a specific time and place.

The source of this information may be internal or external to the Beaverhead County Justice Court. The Beaverhead County Justice Court makes all reasonable efforts to verify this information. However, the information provided in this document is for your information only. The Beaverhead County Justice Court makes no explicit or implied claims to the validity of this information.